

FAQ for PROS:

Q: I've auditioned in the past, can I come in again?

A: If you've auditioned previously or appeared in a previous Musical MainStage production, we do not need to see you again.

Q: Is this paid?

A: Professional performers will receive a stipend.

Q: When will I be notified?

A: All auditioners will be notified via email by June 15th.

Q: What if I'm sick at the last minute or can't make it.

A: Notify the box office. The box office will be open from 1 pm to 5 pm, call 262-782-4431.

FAQ for RISING STARS:

Q: Am I eligible?

A: If you are, or will be, enrolled in any area high school from September, 2018-June, 2019.

Q: Can duets or small groups audition?

A: Yes, but no more than four people; all should be singers.

Q: Will Sunset have music available to those auditioning?

A: No, singers must bring their own sheet music. 32 bars (no more than 1 minute) in their key!

Q: If the singer doesn't have music, can they sing a capella or bring recorded music?

A: A capella is not recommended for professional auditions. No recorded music!

Q: What kind of song should I sing?

A: 32 bars of whatever song best shows off your voice, something you can sing with confidence. We're looking for all styles—rock, pop, jazz, folk, and soul.

Q: Is this an audition for a musical—one of the main stage shows?

A: No, this is for our concert series featuring professional singers and musicians.

Q: How much rehearsing is involved?

A: Rehearsals take place in the evenings, mostly Mondays. Three rehearsals starting a month before the show, plus one tech rehearsal the night before opening. Since there are only four, performers must also work on their own.

Q: Are Rising Stars paid?

A: Not in dollars, but it's an opportunity to gain knowledge, confidence, and exposure in a professional environment. Each Rising Star also receives two comps for opening night, and several have later received college scholarship monies.

Q: When will those chosen be notified?

A: Everyone who auditions, whether selected or not, will receive email notification (if address is legible) by June 15th.
