FURLAN AUDITORIUM PRODUCTION

“Soaring melodies! Well before the show reaches its conclusion, many city slickers in the audience may be ready to enter Percy’s raffle.”

The Wall Street Journal

Music and Book by James Valcq
Lyrics and Book by Fred Alley
Based on the film by Lee David Zlotoff
Presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals

A feisty parolee follows her dream (based on a page from an old travel book) to a small town in Wisconsin where she finds a place for herself working at Hannah’s Spitfire Grill.

The Grill is for sale but, since there are no takers for the only eatery in the depressed town, newcomer Percy convinces Hannah to raffle it off. What does it take to win? One hundred dollars and the best essay on why you want it. Before long, mail arrives by the wheelbarrow and things really start cookin’ at The Spitfire Grill.

A heartwarming and inspirational musical tale of redemption, perseverance, and family.

This modern-day holiday classic is sure to make you embrace your inner elf. After all, the best way to spread Christmas cheer is singing loud for all to hear!

Book by Thomas Meehan & Bob Martin
Music by Matthew Sklar, Lyrics by Chad Beguelin
Originally produced by Warner Bros. Theatre Ventures in association with Unique Features
Presented by arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI), New York

Buddy, a young orphan, mistakenly crawls into Santa's bag of gifts and is transported to the North Pole where he is raised. Our elf wannabe is unaware that he is actually a human until his poor toy-making abilities cause him to face the truth.

Buddy journeys to New York City in search of his birth father and true identity. Faced with the harsh realities that his father is on the naughty list and his half-brother doesn't even believe in Santa, Buddy is determined to win over his new family and remind New York of the true meaning of Christmas.

Added performances December 14 & 18, 2022.

LOVE, SEX, and the I.R.S.

The CEMETERY Club

A cross between I LOVE LUCY and SOME LIKE IT HOT – the perfect tax-time farce!

By William Van Zandt & Jane Milmore
Presented by arrangement with
Concord Theatricals

Jon and Leslie are a couple of out-of-work bachelors who room together in New York City. To save money, Jon has been filing tax returns listing the pair as married. The day of reckoning comes when the Internal Revenue Service informs the “couple” they’re going to be investigated.

Leslie masquerades as a housewife, aided by Jon’s fiancée, Kate. Complicating matters further, Leslie and Kate are having an affair behind Jon’s back, Jon’s mother drops in unexpectedly to meet her son’s fiancée, and Leslie’s ex-girlfriend shows up demanding to know why Leslie has changed and won’t see her anymore.

Touching and humorous, an evening of pure pleasure that will make you glad you went to the theater.

By Ivan Menchell
Presented by arrangement with
Concord Theatricals

Three Jewish widows meet once a month for tea before going to visit their husbands’ graves. Ida is sweet-tempered and ready to begin a new life; Lucille is the feisty embodiment of a girl who just wants to have fun; and Doris is priggish and judgmental, particularly when Sam the butcher enters the scene. He meets the widows while visiting his wife’s grave, and Doris and Lucille quickly work to squash the budding romance between him and Ida.

The Cemetery Club is a poignant mix of comedy and drama, reminding us to cherish the past while embracing the future.

THE MEL BROOKS MUSICAL
YOUNG FRANKENSTEIN
West End Version

Agatha Christie's
Spider's Web

You'll be "Puttin' on the Ritz" and having a monstrously good time with the new West End version of YOUNG FRANKENSTEIN!

Book by Mel Brooks & Thomas Meehan
Music & Lyrics by Mel Brooks
Original Direction & Choreography by Susan Stroman
"Puttin' on the Ritz" by Irving Berlin
Orchestrations by Doug Besterman & Mark Cumberland
Presented by special arrangement with Music Theatre International, (MTI), New York

From the creators of the record-breaking Broadway sensation THE PRODUCERS, comes the recently updated West End edition of this monster musical comedy.

Grandson of the infamous Victor Frankenstein, Frederick Frankenstein (pronounced "Fronk-en-steen") inherits his family's estate in Transylvania. With the help of hunchbacked sidekick Igor (pronounced "Eye-gore") and leggy lab assistant Inga (pronounced normally), Frederick finds himself in the mad scientist shoes of his ancestors. "It's alive!" he exclaims as he brings to life a creature to rival his grandfather's. Eventually, of course, the monster escapes and hilarity ensues.

Suggested for mature audiences only due to language, adult situations, and Mel Brooks' humor.

"What sets Spider's Web apart from most mysteries is that its real motive is fun; all else is secondary."

The New York Times

By Agatha Christie
Produced by arrangement with Concord Theatricals

Clarissa, wife of a diplomat, is adept at spinning tales of adventure, but when a murder takes place in her drawing room she finds live drama much harder to cope with. Desperate to dispose of the body before her husband arrives with an important politician, she enlists the help of her guests. Hilarity ensues when they are interrupted by the arrival of wry detective Inspector Lord.

A conscious parody of the detective thriller, Christie delivers a unique blend of suspense and humor. There is tension and laughter in equal parts in an intricate plot of murder, police, drug addicts, invisible ink, hidden doorways, and secret drawers.

Bipolar Ionization System at Sunset!

Thanks to a very generous donor, Sunset has installed a Bipolar Ionization system throughout the building to make it even safer to work, volunteer, or attend shows at the Playhouse. This system kills pathogens, reduces airborne particles, neutralizes odors, and saves energy.

BPI works by introducing a high concentration of positive and negative ions into the airstream. As airflow is distributed throughout a space, these ions surround pathogens including viruses, mold spores, and bacteria and deactivate them by removing the hydrogen they need to survive. Airborne particulates like dust, pollen, and other allergens are reduced when positively- and negatively-charged ions cause them to clump together, allowing for improved filtration capture. BPI technology also provides odor neutralization and can help save energy by reducing outdoor air intake needs.

This system is completely safe and neutral for humans and does not produce ozone. We're excited to welcome everyone to our safer and cleaner building!
